

I know of several people in our listening area for KLOVE that have benefited from the station. I myself have many times. It means alot to have access to a christian radio station. There are many times when the right message comes across to help those who need it. I pray that this continues.